Venue change promises to offer more exciting atmosphere to celebrate country legend.”

HUMBLE, TEX. -- Mundo Earwood is one of classic country’s unsung heroes, though he accrued countless accolades throughout his 10 year stint in the mainstream music spotlight, including 24 instances on the Billboard charts. Earwood’s voice went silent from the national scene shortly after the release of “You’re in Love with the Wrong Man” in 1982, and fans have questioned through the, nearly 30 year disconnect, “Where is Mundo Earwood?”

A website with the very question was posted at www.whereismundo.com, and fans were shown an invitation to a special live event to celebrate the launch of Earwood’s official website. The event, which is scheduled for December 31, 2010, was booked at the KOA Campgrounds on Lake Conroe, right outside of the Houston area. A new announcement was recently posted, and the event is now being hosted at The Falls Golf Resort and Club in New Ulm, a town near San Antonio. Though details as to why the venue change occurred are not listed, a spokesperson for the event promises that the change will offer a much more entertaining atmosphere.

“We are excited for Mundo to share this evening of live music with fans that are eager to connect after 28 years,” Ross Phillips, an organizer behind the “Where is Mundo?” campaign, said. “Attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy an incredible meal, champagne, great music and dancing. The Falls has an environment that lends itself to a very fun evening with friends, and a great way to ring in the new year.”

Tickets are available for this exciting evening, and interested individuals have two pricing options. A ticket, including dinner, a bottle of champagne and an evening of live music, is priced at $65. Individuals interested in only the live music portion of the event can purchase a ticket for $25. A full dinner menu can be found on the “Where is Mundo?” website. Dinner will be served from 6:00 Pm.M. to 9:00 P.M., and Earwood will take the stage from 9:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M..

The Falls Golf Resort and Club is located at 1750 North Falls Drive in New Ulm. For more information on tickets or directions to the venue, please call (979) 992-3123.
